

Asian Journal of health sciences in collaboration with Angamaly charter of APPI at LFMRC, is the official journal of Little Flower Medical Research Centre (LFMRC), Angamaly, Kerala, India. This is a multidisciplinary, peer reviewed, open access, half yearly journal which publishes a wide range of scientific works including original research papers, case reports, reviews, audits, editorials, book reviews and articles from medical students. The submitted articles in various fields of health sciences are fully peer-reviewed. These articles are only published after the referees careful consideration and opinion and other necessary corrections. The policy of the journal is to encourage the new generation of Healthcare Professionals to publish articles in time. Finally I'd like to express my gratitude to all who have worked hard to come up with the first issue of AJHS.
